I worked at ARA for 23 years tutoring in the social services and in women's courses at the Next Step Centre for Women.

I have been based at the Hagley Learning Centre for the last 13 years, where I tutor adults in literacy and numeracy and English language.

I also coordinate a team of 50 volunteers who work across the city in the classes run by our Centre.

In 2023 I was presented with the National Adult Educator of the Year award.
